

I Should Like To

I should like to take home the wind from a storm
The dancing waves from the sea,
I should like to paint the whistling draught,
The heart of a tree,
I should like to hear the glow of an owl's eye,
The heart of an iceberg beat,
I should like to touch the tears of the sun,
the eyes of the rain.