

Fire up your imagination and enter chagword's short story competition

theme: Extraordinary Meetings

maximum 800 words

Just imagine if you were having a coffee at the Three Crowns and the Queen walks in ... or Mr Darcy met Superman...

Where, when, why and what happens is up to you.
These unlikely pairings can be between fictional and non-fictional characters, the choice is yours.

May meets Marge?

How it Works

Write your story, it must be your own work and not have been published before, inspired by the theme Extraordinary Meetings.

Don't put your name on it, but complete the entry form (overleaf) and attach it to your story.

The stories will be judged by authors Sam North and Jane Feaver.

What are the Prizes?

Adults (16+ years)	1st prize £50	2nd prize £30
12 to 15 years	1st prize £30	2nd prize £20
8 to 11 years	1st prize £20	2nd prize £15
7 and under	1st prize £10	2nd prize £5

Closing date Friday 8th February 2019

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

chagword

Children's BookFest
9 March 2019

Dartmoor's Literary Festival
22-24 March 2019

chagword's short story competition

entry form

Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

Title of story _____

Age group ✓ 16 + 12 to 15 8 to 11 7 & under

Attach your story to the form. Please do NOT include your name or any identifying details on your story and post to:

Fru Goudge, Greenbank, Chagford, TQ13 8EJ

or put them in the dropbox in Blacks Delicatessen, 28 The Square, Chagford.

Details of rules can be found on chagword.co.uk

chagword

Children's BookFest
9 March 2019

Dartmoor's Literary Festival
22-24 March 2019